

furniture lighting & decor

*new year,
new heights*

trends for 2019 + winter
market previews

JANUARY 2019

furniturelightingdecor.com

Wall Art Wows at AmericasMart Atlanta

 furniturelightingdecor.com/wall-art-wows-americasmart-atlanta

The Atlanta International Gift and Home Furnishings Market revved up today, and wall art appears to be a popular category.

Alison Martin

01/08/2019

The winter market season kicks off every year at AmericasMart at the Atlanta International Gift and Home Furnishings Market. Our team hit the floor today, ready to see what's new and what manufacturers see coming down the line.

Right from the start, wall art popped out, with manufacturers collaborating with artists and going beyond the typical print to show works of art that were both new and unique. Among all the styles, abstract works stood out the most. Here's what we saw and what you should too.

Stylecraft Home Collection

Over the last few market cycles, StyleCraft has invested more in its artwork offerings, targeting interior designers and collaborating with artists. Last year, the company released a line of bright abstract works by Monica Janes (shown left). Each canvas explodes with color, and as these performed well, StyleCraft introduced a few new ones at AmericasMart Atlanta.

