The Rosales Ceiling Fan, a masterful blend of elegance and innovation that redefines the artistry of home cooling, features eight gracefully designed blades spanning an impressive 60 inches. The blade's distinctive design features a soft fabric-like extrusion reminiscent of drapery. The seamless connection of the blades creates a fluid and harmonious aesthetic, ensuring that the Rosales not only cools your space but also becomes a focal point of your decor. Choose from two exquisite finishes for the canopy and down rod – the contemporary matte black for a sleek and modern look or the timeless aged brass for a touch of vintage charm. For added versatility, the Rosales offers an optional light kit (sold separately) specifically designed to complement the fan's aesthetic.
