PRODUCT DETAILS:

Luxurious and stunning, the modern Helios chandelier is characterized by its perfectly angled, aged brass frame and its dual, up-light/down-light sockets. With bulbs neatly housed in clear, ribbed glass orb shades for an added touch of whimsy. The overall composition is futuristic and leans mid-century modern in its styling. This striking luminary comes together harmoniously in its eye-catching geometry and luxury appeal. Hang it over any dining room table, in any entryway foyer, or living room space as a captivating and functional centerpiece.
